

The mission of Excelencia in Education is to accelerate Latino student success in higher education. A critical group of institutions enrolling and graduating Latino students are Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs).

In 2019-20, over two-thirds of all Latino undergraduate students in higher education (67 percent) were enrolled in 569 institutions in the United States known as Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs).¹ HSIs represent 18 percent of all institutions of higher education. The majority of HSIs (56 percent) are 4-year institutions, and a smaller subset offer graduate programs.

In 2019-20, 42% of HSIs offered graduate programs (237 HSIs).

Summary of the 2019-20 List of HSIs with Graduate Programs

Of the 569 HSIs, 237 offered graduate degrees (139 offered doctoral degrees as the highest degree, 79 offered master's degrees, 18 offered a post-master's certificate, and one offered a postbaccalaureate certificate).

The list of institutions identified as HSIs with graduate programs in this analysis is not intended to designate eligibility for any specific program; rather, the list is meant to assist in considering and analyzing the institutions that meet the legislative definition of an HSI and offer graduate programs.² The following list of HSIs was created using data from the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS).³

² Title V, Part B of the Higher Education Opportunity Act authorizes the Promoting Postbaccalaureate Opportunities for Hispanic Americans (PPOHA) Program (PPOHA) program to expand postbaccalaureate educational opportunities for, and improve the academic attainment of, Hispanic and other low-income students.
